

PUBLIC LEDGER

FOURTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, MARCH 28, 1895.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to pay for circulation "free any more than a merchant can afford to pay for the delivery of his goods or services. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its column space and advertising space should be paid for, no matter what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Call

Upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Successes,

excursions, fares, other public enter- tainments, etc., there is charged, and for ordinary notices, resolutions of respect, &c., THE LEDGER will charge $1.00 per line, and for every line will be the inevitable rule. This, how- ever, will not affect the price of notices.

Does Not Include

notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Most publications are unpleasant.

The rate for Buried Books in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion, and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local news in the paper. "The book is buried in the paper," says to the bookseller. But he forgets to say that it is to be buried for two months—22 times!—the bill is $1. When he finds the reverse, followed probably by an icy feeling, now, to oblige him, the bookseller says, "Orders will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a new agreement." And the customer and the bookseller will be pleased at the outcome, and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mrs. James H. Hall spent yesterday in Cincinnati.

Mrs. L. V. Davis returned last evening from Cincinnati.

Miss Sudep Shadwell went to Cincinnati last evening, to return today.

Miss Amelia B. Wood and Miss Alice Dotsey are visiting in Cincinnati.

Mrs. James E. Cahill and Miss Nettie Cahill spent yesterday in the city.

Miss Hal Gray is spending a few days in Cincinnati, a guest at the St. Nicholas Hotel.

Miss Sallie Short Wood is visiting her sister, Mrs. Madison Lyons of Cincinnati.

Mrs. J. W. Fitzgerald returned last night from a visit to her parents at Augusta.

Mrs. E. B. Cade and mother, Mrs. Rachel Everett, are visiting relatives at Pittsburgh.

Miss Lettie Wood has returned home after a pleasant visit to the Misses Green of Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Knight of near Helena were visiting friends at Washington yesterday.

Miss Lida Perkins of Lexington is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. T. Clinkenbeard of East Fifth street.

Mrs. J. T. Crawford of Keyser, W. Va., is visiting her mother, Mrs. S. J. Daugherty of Lexington street.

Mr. Thomas Johnson of Washington, who has been visiting in New York City, returned home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hard of Waterbury, Conn., are visiting the family of Mr. S. F. Priske of this city.

Miss Isa Pierce of Cincinnati is at home attending the funeral of her cousin, Miss Anna Pierce of Lincolstone street.

Easter Kentucky Democrat—E. A. Robinson, the genial cigar manufacturer from Mayfield, was here Saturday.

Miss Lucy Nicholson, one of the charming belles of Mayfield, has returned after a pleasant visit to her sister at Newport.

Newspaper in Neckwear.

Hechinger & Co. have just received from Rufus Waterhouse, considered one of the finest neckwear manufacturers in this country, their spring and summer line of neckwear. It is considered the handsomest line ever shown in this city, and those that are fond of novelties in neckwear should not fail to call and inspect them.

THE NAPOLEONIC REVOLT.

Oh, figure on the posters.
Our feather dream is very good, but not a far or so.
But you're an awful bore.

We've had you in a purple hat,
Astride a yellow steed.
(A horse was never born like that,
Or an authentic breed?)

We've heard of all your follies,
Of the girls that you have known.
(Some, like Baudelaire's pictures,
That you would be proud to see!)

You've extenuated service to sinful lies
Of what you said and did—
Lie that to eternity.
Will doom them to a girl.

You make us weary, Bonnie,
So bid us all adieu!

Do take a jaunt—that's the place!—
And, say, take "Truly," too!

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect for the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER FORECAST.

While streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN OR SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—TWILL WARMEN
GROW.
With White ABOVE—TWILL WARMEN
BE;
Unless Black's shown—no change will see.

* * * The above forecasts are made for a period of twenty-four hours, ending at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening.

We respectfully invite the comparison of THE LEDGER with any other daily paper in Northeastern Kentucky. If any one can find a daily paper more accurate than the Ninth Congressional District that has

Larger Circulation, or More Original
Reporting Matter,
we will take pleasure in presenting him with a year's subscription to THE LEDGER. And this paper is furnished at same price as inferior ones.

Cuts prices on windows at J. T. Kackley & Co.'s.

Colonel Ben D. Parry, ex-Circuit Clerk, has moved to his farm near Helena.

Miss Lutie Graybill died at her home on Tuckaloe Ridge of consumption, aged 23 years. She was buried at Dover.

Wallpaper at a loss; $4 cents will buy eight yards of Silk Paper, former price 40 cents. Now is your chance.

J. T. KACKLEY & CO.

The gross earnings of the L. N. and for the third week in March were $353,700, a decrease of $5,700 from the same week in 1894, and of $39,815 as compared with 1893.

Now is the time to take stock in the Fifth Series of The People's Building Association. Call on John Duley Treasurer, Robert L. Baldwin Secretary, or any of the Directors.

The body of Mrs. Mary R. Bent, who died in Louisville January 2d, was exhumed in Cave Hill and a chemical analysis will be made of her stomach. Her husband, J. W. Bent of Chicago, requested that she was poisoned.

The President has pardoned W. G. Hera, sentenced in Southern Ohio to three years imprisonment at hard labor for making counterfeit plates. His term expired last July and the pardon is granted to restore citizenship.

A Kansas man has discovered that brandy can be made from wet old sawdust, and a discouraged Prohibitionist asks what chance the good cause will have when a man can go forth with a rip saw and get drunk on a fence rail.

Fifteen or twenty of the prisoners in the penitentiary draw pensions, some of them as much as $300 per month. A curious fact is that nearly all the pensioned convicts are there for serious crimes and long terms, some of them for life.

William Gatewood Haile, a soldier of the War of 1812, is dead near Hopkinsville. He was 17 years of age when he enlisted in a Tennessee regiment. After the close of the war he moved to Arkansas, thence to Missouri, and 1862 to Cerulian Springs, where he died, aged 98 years. He was very poor, and had been blind for many years.

The death of Mr. Jacob Slack, the correspondent at Washington, removes another good and true man from among us. The writer has known him well for many years, and can testify that he was not that good to make a good citizen, a kind neighbor and friend and an upright Christian.

Not even a year ago, James J. Slack spoke harsh words of me once, yet he was a firm and decided man in all the ways of life. He was a retiring, unassuming man, and leaves the heritage of a well spent life and good name to his sons and daughters. His wife predeceased him some ten years.

Rev. W. H. Aldridge, one of Greenup county's good citizens, is dead.

Born, March 25th, at Washington City, to the wife of W. B. Cady, a girl.

Elder J. W. Bullock will visit Mill Creek Church next Lord's Day. Services at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Nellie W. Boggs of North Carolina was called to Washington on account of the serious illness of her mother.

There were five conversations and five additions to the M. E. Church as the result of yesterday's meetings.

For the best garden seeds handled in Maysville call on H. H. Cox & Son, 45 West Second Street. Seeds for prices.

Mrs. Amanda Ward of Washington, who has been very sick, mention of which was made in THE LEDGER, is reported to be some better.

Mrs. Minnie Garrett of West Second street is convalescing rapidly after a severe spell of sickness. Her friends are delighted to see her out again.

Ed. Sparks, ex-Assistant Cashier of the Cincinnati Post, who will be recalled attempt to rob himself, has been given two years in the Ohio Penitentiary and $100 fine.

Mr. Faithful Higgins died yesterday afternoon at her home on West Second street. The funeral will take place from the residence at 3 o'clock this afternoon, with the Rev. E. B. Cade.

The Blooms Concert last night drew a select audience at the Opera-house. The program was well rendered, the audience was delighted and the participants scored a success—musical as well as financial.

Rev. W. T. Spain of Websterfield will be absent from his pulpit next Sunday, as he has gone to his old church in Boone county to deliver an address to the Sabbath school, which he founded twenty years ago.

Mr. Thomas McNally, who has charge of the work of clearing up the Runaway Building, is the right man in the right place. Few men would care to assume his responsibilities, and yet he goes about the work with a coolness and deliberation that inspire confidence.

Police Judge Wadsworth himself testifies in court what he said to the press. Mr. Joe Kindig for fast driving. The warrant was placed in the hands of Chief Officer, whose duty was to execute it. Mr. Kindig was fined $10 and costs, amounting in all to $15.85, which he paid promptly.

HORSES BOUGHT.

Mr. Joe Kidding Buys For Cash Four Good Ones.

Mr. Joe Kidding & Co.

Mr. Joe Kindig of York, Pa., was in the city Tuesday and yesterday, with headquarters at Moise Hall & Bro., and he bought fourteen head of horses at an average of about $100, paying the work.

The name of Kindig is a familiar one to the farmers of Mason county.

The father for years bought horses and mules in this market, and it was no unusual thing for him to buy from Colonel W. W. Baldwin and Charles E. Tabb from 150 to 200 miles at a clip, plunking down from $30,000 to $50,000 in money.

Six sons are now following in his footsteps, and it is safe to say that the Kindigs have left hundreds of thousands of dollars in this and adjacent counties.

These are the sort of visitors that Mayville and Mason county should encourage, and instead of throwing obstacles in their way we should invite them to come and give them a hearty welcome.

Mr. Kindig left yesterday afternoon to meet an engagement at Paris.

SMALLPOX REPORTED.

A genuine case said to exist in the County.

Some days ago a man, wife and eight children came off the river and located on the farm of Colonel John Peters near Stoneycreek.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Peters was in the city, and informed Dr. H. K. Adams that in his opinion the man had developed a genuine case of smallpox.

Dr. Adams went out this morning, armed—as Mr. Peters requested—with enough smallpox virus to vaccinate the whole Stoneycreek neighborhood.

It will be late this afternoon when the Doctor returns.

In the meantime, don't get scared: get vaccinated instead.

There's no science for a panic: no disease known to medical science is so easily controlled as smallpox.

And while you're shivering in your boots as to the fatality of cholera and smallpox, it is well to remember that the grip has killed more people than both those diseases combined; and yet you don't get the buck eye every time you hear the grip mentioned.

KENTUCKY HIGHWAYS.

A PAPER PREPARED BY THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE ON ROADS AT WASHINGTON.

A paper on "Kentucky Highways," containing a full history of the old and new roads of the state, prepared by Major W. H. Crump, member of the National Advisory Committee on Roads, has been made public by the Agricultural Department. The improvement of public roads was begun in Kentucky in the early part of the present century, and today few states, it is said, boast of a better or more extensive system of macadamized highways.

Kentucky passed its first road law Feb. 25th, 1792. It was similar to that of Virginia, which was in turn an adoption of the English road law that has prevailed for ages. One section of the law compelled all male laboring persons to work on roads for 16 hours or more, or to work on some public road. Few states, the paper says, have been more liberal in promoting public improvements than Kentucky, especially in the matter of highways, roads and waterways.

The latest story from Grant county is that a man has invented a burglar alarm that will warn the family twenty-four hours before the burglar makes the attempt.

The bachelor editor of The Bracken Chronicle, says that The Winchester Democrat, is trying to be wiser than he is.

Another timber run is coming out of the Kanawha.

The Kanawha is rising, together with all its tributaries.

The Henry C. Stanley passed up this morning at 6 o'clock.

Five towboats are now under way with towboats from Pittsburgh.

The Ruth will charge the water as far as Portsmouth tonight.

The Keystone State is the Wheeling and Pittsburgh packet tonight.

The Washonell left Pittsburgh last night with a large tow of steel rails.

The Ohio continues rising at headwaters, but will probably begin receding by tomorrow.

A good coalboating stage is now on, and the towboats are having lots of fun churning the muddy water.

The little steamer Nancy, now doing duty at the Portsmouth C. and O. transfer, broke down Monday, and the Belle of Ashland is temporarily doing the work.

Captain John Rigg and Pilot John Bay of John Bay's steamer Georgia had a big fight Saturday night and the boat was compelled to tie up at Ironton until a new pilot could be secured.

The Bay Brothers have made a deal with the C. and O. Railroad, which will make it necessary for the Bay to build another steamer to run in conjunction with the Henry M. Stanley in the Cincinnati and Kanawha river trade.

Boys who want their Suits before that time will leave their name and call for the Wagon when they come to hand.

EASTER NUMBER!

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR LEGITIMATE ADVERTISING.

The LEDGER will, on Saturday, April 13th, issue a special "Easter Number."

It will consist of 8 pages, with a page devoted to Easter, embracing a story by Colonel Will L. Fischer, formerly of the Kentucky press and well known throughout Mason and adjoining counties.

This edition will be a trade catcher, and advertisers may depend upon getting what they pay.

We will see if some of our merchants are as willing to patronize a legitimate home enterprise as they are to jump at every "fake" that comes along.

IS GOING OUT
OF THE SHOE BUSINESS, AND WANTS TO DO IT QUICK!

It will be to your advantage to heed this, for you can buy Boots and Shoes cheap enough to hold for future use. My stock is composed of the best goods manufactured. Every pair of Shoes will be marked in plain figures and without regard to cost. This is not a general clearance sale you so frequently read about with a few leaders bought cheap, are cheap, and that always disappoint, but a total sell out of the best goods at lower prices than the same can be duplicated for by any house. The prices run as follows:

You	Can	Buy
For
25 cents a pair of Shoes worth 40 cents.	35 cents a pair of Shoes worth 60 cents.	40 cents a pair of Shoes worth 75 cents.
50 cents a pair of Shoes worth $1.	75 cents a pair of Shoes worth $1.50.	$1 a pair of Shoes worth $2.
$1 50 a pair of Shoes worth $3.

And so on through the entire line. Nothing spared, and all prices will be to your interest more than mine. Call and examine and be convinced of the truth of the above statements.

TRAIN BANDITS.

Six Attempt to Hold Up a Southern Train.

One Shot Dead and Another Dies Two Hours Later.

A Third Man Was Wounded in the Breast. Perhaps Fatally—The Presence of Three Railroad Detectives Frustrated the Design of the Robbers.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 28.—Two robbers dead and a third mortally wounded were the result of an attempt to hold up southbound passenger train No. 3, on the Cincinnati Southern road, at 2:35 Wednesday morning.

The passengers had just emerged from train No. 2, two miles north of Greenwood, Ky., when a white lantern, swinging in the middle of the track just ahead, brought it to a dead stop.

In tall, decked-out uniforms, perhaps 45 years old, mounted the steps of the engine, and thrusting the shining barrel of a pistol into the face of Engineer Tom Springfield, ordered him to stop still, which he did, while the man, Dalsey Rankin, who was next to the outlaw, observed a discreet silence.

Three other men wearing broad brimmed slouch hats and homemade cloaks climbed into the baggage car, which had evidently been reserved for the express car. J. Donovan, the baggage master, was not disturbed. Three road detectives, Thomas Griffin, detective from Somerset, Will Edens of Olddale, Tenn., and Alford of Clarksville, Tenn., were in the baggage car when the train stopped at this out-of-the-way place.

Alftopped stepped down and was ordered to throw up his hands by a man who had a revolver, but did not draw it. Another pulled a revolver and began firing. The two robbers took flight at the shooting and jumping from the baggage car opened up a perfect fusade of shots. Eddie and Griffin had apparently been selected for the job, and it is believed they fought down two of the robbers, one of whom died instantly, while the other lived till 4 o'clock.

A third man was wounded in the breast, perhaps fatally, but, unlike the rest, wore a cap.

He clambered up on the tender and refused to budge until Cumberland Falls was reached.

The man was given in charge of the operator.

Two of the attacking party escaped, one being the man guarding the engineer, who divined that their game had failed and ordered the engineer to move on.

The presence of the detectives easily frustrated their plans.

Officialized the road have had knowledge for some time of a plot to waylay the trains, and the officers were in readiness to meet the bandits unprepared to service as an extra baggage car. The dead brigands were left lying by the track while the officers got off and gave chase to the fugitives.

The wounded man claims to be from Louisville, Kentucky, and the mail clerk says he was struck by the engine cab, who passed underneath the train and shot him from behind, thinking he was a fugitive.

The clerks saw him fall a few paces from the mail car door. If this supposition is correct three of the would-be robbers are still at large. None of the men were identified, but are mountaineers, described as is evidenced by the clothing they wear.

The spot selected for their work was well chosen, as there is not a house within a mile. A deep cut is on one side, while a ravine banks the other side of the road, and the track makes one of numerous turns just beyond.

The detectives did quick and true work.

This is the first effort to hold up a Cincinnati Southern train.

To the credit of the trainmen, the train pulled into the depot exactly on time.

Pete Gorman was the conductor of the train and Dan Laskie the express man.

A costly victory.

New York, March 28.—A special detachment from Panama says: "The government has issued a bulletin claiming a victory over the rebels." It was not the only one, however, for out of the 3,000 troops, under Gen. Reyes, which formed the expedition, 1,500 dropped off through fatigue or disease during the march, and of the remaining 1,500, 700 gave up to the rebels, 700 were killed before victory was restored with the government forces.

Adroitly Maitreied.

FEDERALBURG, Md., March 28.—Mamie Dean, daughter of Jacob Dean, living at Harmony, Caroline county, failed to return from school Tuesday night, and her mother, Mrs. Charles Dean, who was quarantined by the authorities, was unable to find her. Her body was found near her home. Her throat was cut from ear to ear and she was otherwise maltreated. The neighborhood was aroused and lynch committees are looking for the murderers.

Holiday Wins.

New York, March 28.—A special detachment from Kingston, Jamaica, says: "A battle has taken place between Haytian troops and a revolutionary force near the San Domingo frontier. It resulted in favor of the government troops, who were commanded by President Hippolyte in person. The revolutionaries were poorly armed and equipped."

First Children Buried.

MINTON, N. D., March 28.—The residence of Phoenix Christensen, a carpenter, was completely burned. Five children, all in age from 3 to 15 years, perished in the flames.

Well-Known Horsemen Suicides.

GLENELG, Ill., March 28.—Joseph W. Frazee, 40, a raiser of fine horses and well known in Illinois and Wisconsin circuits, committed suicide.

INDIANA G. A. R.

The Parade Included Over 5,000 Men—Commissioner Langdale Named—Walker, Commander-in-Chief.

MUNCIE, Ind., March 28.—The parade of the Indiana line Wednesday evening included over 5,000 men, and as they marched up Walnut street over 30,000 people watched them go by. One of the most brilliant effects of the day was the march of the colored children in the courthouse yard.
